Subject: a thank you note.

Dear Sir,

Thankfully, we would like to appreciate your great efforts to provide us with a medically rich and valuable media as ASJOG which is now available within hands of all of us, guiding, useful, flexible and up-to-date.

As registrars, we were really in need to learn better knowledge, but that was difficult within the atmosphere of our work overload and tight schedules. Thankfully, ASJOG shared in solving this problem. We are pleased also that ASJOG covered materials including protocols and scientific discussions dealt within our spare time.

With pleasure, we wish you more progress and more knowledge in the field of obstetrics and gynecology.

With all our pride and encouragement, we wish you all the best, and special thanks to all ASJOG staff.
